Accessing Emergency and Urgent Care in the Physicians Plus Network

EMERGENCY CARE
Emergency care is care for medical conditions that will likely result in serious jeopardy to a person’s health or that of an unborn child. Examples include:

- Choking
- Drug overdose
- Heart attack
- Seizures
- Stroke
- Unconsciousness

Where to seek emergency care...
- If you have a severe emergency, call 911 or visit the nearest ER as soon as possible. In Madison, go to Meriter Hospital if you can.
- In less severe cases, call your doctor or our 24-hour NursePlus line (866-775-8776) for advice before you go to the ER.
- See our online provider directory at pplusic.com for a list of all in-network emergency facilities.

URGENT CARE
Urgent care is for conditions that require timely treatment when your primary care physician is not available. Call your doctor or NursePlus at 866-775-8776 if you’re not sure where to go. Do not go to a hospital ER for urgent care unless instructed to do so. Examples include:

- Minor broken bones
- Minor burns
- Minor cuts
- Drug reactions
- Non-severe bleeding
- Sprains

Where to seek urgent care...
- In Dane County, please visit one of these Urgent Care Centers:
  - UW Health East Towne and West Towne in Madison
  - Stoughton Hospital Urgent Care in Stoughton and Oregon
- See our online provider directory at pplusic.com for a list of all in-network urgent care centers.

PLEASE NOTE: As of January 1, 2013, these area hospitals are NOT part of the Physicians Plus network:
- UW Hospital & Clinics in Madison
- St. Mary’s in Madison, Sun Prairie and Janesville
- Mercy Hospital in Janesville

If you receive non-emergency care from any ER facility, it will not be covered by your Physicians Plus HMO or BadgerCare Plus policy (POS policies will cover at a lesser benefit).
